ARTICLE IV. PROHIBITION AGAINST PREDATORY LENDING PRACTICES.

Section 58-100 Legislative Findings.

The City Council of the City of Atlanta, Georgia finds:

- (a) that citizens from many lower and moderate income neighborhoods in Georgia have been unable to access legitimate financing for home purchases and renovations, allowing predatory lenders to thrive; and
- (b) that these predatory lenders are charging exorbitant fees and interest rates and are persuading citizens to incur mortgage debt in excess of their needs or ability to pay often through fraudulent means; and
- (c) these predatory lending practices appear to be targeting elderly and vulnerable borrowers; and
- (d) that to protect the citizens of Atlanta and its neighborhoods from lending practices which strip hard earned equity from city residents and contribute to the problem of vacant and abandoned houses by making loans that families cannot afford to repay.

Section 58-101. Intent and Purpose

It is the intent and purpose of this Chapter:

- (a) to collect and make available to the public information necessary for city residents to protect themselves against predatory lending practices; and
- (b) to prevent the lenders engaged in predatory lending and those persons providing referrals and services to those lenders from enjoying the privilege of doing business with our City; and
- (c) to prevent predatory lenders and those persons providing referrals and services to those lenders from taking advantage of city programs designed to encourage home ownership and home repair.

(2) "Annual percentage rate". The annual percentage rate for the loan calculated according to the provisions of the federal Truth in Lending Act (15 U.S.C. §1601 et. seq.), and the regulations promulgated thereunder by the Federal Reserve Board (as said Act and regulations are amended from time to time).

- (c) the prompt disengagement from the practice of making, issuing, or arranging, or assisting others in so making, issuing, or arranging high cost loans by the business entity(s) and its affiliates; and
- (d) the complete cessation of the making, issuing or arranging, or assisting others in the making, issuing or arranging of high cost loans by the business entity and its affiliates within 90 days after the plan is submitted; provided that no more than one plan may be submitted on behalf of any business entity.

(8) "High Cost Loan". A high cost loan is a loan that is secured by residential real property located within the City of Atlanta on which there is situated a dwelling for not more than four families or a condominium unit, or is secured by a cooperative unit within the City of Atlanta, if:

- (a) The annual percentage rate of the loan equals or exceeds four percentage points over the weekly average yield on United States Treasury securities with a comparable duration to the term of the loan, as of the week immediately preceding the week in which the interest rate for the loan is established, subject to the following conditions:

- (i) If the terms of the loan offers any initial or introductory period, and the annual percentage rate is less than that which will apply after the end of such initial or introductory period, then the annual percentage rate that shall be taken into account for purposes of this paragraph shall be the rate which applies after the initial or introductory period; and
 - (ii) In the case of an annual percentage rate which varies in accordance with an index, the rate shall be the maximum rate permitted at any time by the loan documents; or
- (b) The total points and fees exceed 3 percent of the total loan amount.

However, "high cost loan" shall not include a loan that is made primarily for a business purpose unrelated to the residential real property securing the loan, a loan with an annual percentage rate below that of a threshold loan at all times over the life of the loan, or any loan which exceeds $150,000.

(9) "Points and Fees" means:

- (a) All items listed in 15 U.S.C. Section 1605(a)(1) through (4), except interest or the time-price differential;
- (b) All charges listed in 15 U.S.C. Section 1605(e);
- (c) All compensation paid directly or indirectly (including but not limited to yield spread premiums) to a mortgage broker, including a broker that originates a loan in its own name in a table funded transaction, not otherwise included in subparagraph (a) or (b) of this paragraph;
- (d) All premiums or other charges financed, directly or indirectly, in the loan for any credit life, credit disability, credit unemployment, accident, health, or loss-of-income insurance or any other line or subline of insurance which may become accepted as credit insurance by the insurance and lending industries or for any debt cancellation or suspension agreements or contracts (whether or not the debt cancellation or suspension agreement coverage is insurance under applicable law), or similar products; and
- (e) The maximum prepayment fees or penalties that may be charged under the terms of the loan.

(10) "Predatory lender" means a business entity that, through itself and or an affiliate has made, issued or arranged, or assisted others in so doing, within any 12 month period, predatory loans that comprise either:

- (a) 5% of the total annual number of loans made, issued or arranged, or 5% of the total annual number of loans which the business entity has assisted others in so making, issuing or arranging; or
- (b) 10 individual loans; whichever is less.

The term "predatory lender" shall not include a business entity, or its affiliates, that has submitted to the Commissioner of the Department of Planning, Development and Neighborhood Conservation, or any department so designated by the Mayor, a plan to discontinue the practice of making predatory loans, if the plan ensures:

- (c) the prompt disengagement from the practice of making predatory loans by the financial institution and its affiliates, and
- (d) the complete cessation of the making of predatory loans by the financial institution and its affiliates within 90 days after the plan is submitted; provided that no more than one plan may be submitted on behalf of any financial institution.

(11)"Predatory loan" means a threshold or high cost loan that was made under circumstances that involve any of the following acts or practices or that contain any of the following loan terms:

- (a) Fraudulent or deceptive acts or practices, including fraudulent or deceptive marketing and sales efforts to sell high cost loans;
- (b) "Loan Flipping". "Flipping" a loan means the making of a threshold or high cost loan to a borrower that refinances an existing loan secured by residential property in the city of Atlanta when the new loan does not have a reasonable, tangible net benefit to the borrower considering all of the circumstances, including the terms of both the new and refinanced loans, the cost of the new loan, and the borrower's circumstances. Reduction of monthly payments alone shall not be considered a tangible net benefit to the borrower.
- (c) "Balloon Payments". A loan that contains a scheduled payment that is more than twice as large as the average of earlier scheduled payments or which contains a provision that gives the lender, in its sole discretion, the right to accelerate the indebtedness in the absence of the default of the borrower.
- (d) "Negative Amortization". A loan that contains a payment schedule with regular periodic payments that causes the principal balance to increase.
- (e) "Points and Fees." - (f) "Increased Interest Rate". A loan that contains a provision that increases the interest rate after the occurrence of a default. Interest rate increases do not constitute a predatory loan practice in a variable rate loan where the increase is otherwise consistent with the provisions of the loan documents, provided that the event of default or the acceleration of the indebtedness does not trigger the change in the interest rate.
- (g) "Advance Payments". A loan which includes terms under which more than two periodic payments required under the loan are consolidated and paid in advance from the loan proceeds provided to the borrower other than a loan issued by or guaranteed by city agencies, city-related agencies, or another state or federal government agency.

(h) "Modification or Deferral Fees ". A loan which includes terms under which the lender may charge a borrower any fees or other charges to modify, renew, extend, or amend a loan product or to defer any payment due under the terms of a loan product.

(i) "Mandatory Arbitration ". A loan that contains a mandatory arbitration clause that limits in any way the right of the borrower to seek relief through a court of law or equity.

(j)"Prepayment Penalties ". The lender has charged or contracted to charge any prepayment fee or penalty for the voluntary or involuntary prepayment of the home loan, or the lender has charged or contracted to charge any fee for informing any person of the balance due to pay off the home loan.

(k) "Financing of Credit Insurance". The lender has financed, directly or indirectly, premiums or other charges for any credit life, credit disability, credit unemployment insurance, accident, health, or loss-of-income insurance or any other line or sub-line of insurance which may become accepted as a credit insurance by the insurance and lending industries or for any debt cancellation or suspension agreements or contracts (whether or not the debt cancellation or suspension agreement coverage is insurance under applicable law), or similar products. Insurance premiums calculated and paid on a monthly basis shall not be considered financed by the lender; provided, however, that in no event shall the amount of coverage for any home loan exceed the amount necessary to satisfy the borrower's obligation on any given date during the life of such home loan.

(m) "Lending Without Due Regard to Repayment" in violation of this Ordinance.

(n) "Encouraging Default." The lender recommends or encourages default on an existing loan or other debt prior to and in connection with the closing or planned closing of a loan that refinances all or any portion of such existing loan or debt.

(o) "Late fees." The lender charges late fees for the late payment of an installment due on a home loan, unless:

- (1) The fee does not exceed 5 percent of the past due installment;
- (2) The fee is not charged more than once as a result of a single late payment; and
- (3) The borrower has agreed to the imposition of the late fees in the home loan contract.

(p) Charging of points, fees or other charges in connection with a high-cost home loan if the proceeds of the high cost home loan are used to refinance an existing high-cost home loan held by the same lender or an affiliate of the lender.

(q) Refinancing of a special mortgage originated, subsidized or guaranteed by or through a state, tribal or local government, or nonprofit organization, which bears either a below-market interest rate, or has nonstandard payment terms beneficial to the borrower, such as payments that vary with income, are limited to a percentage of income, or where no payments are required under specified conditions, and where, as a result of the refinancing, the borrower will lose one or more of the benefits of the special mortgage.

(12) "Threshold loan". A loan that is secured by residential real property located within the City of Atlanta on which there is situated a dwelling for not more than four families or a condominium unit, or is secured by a cooperative unit within the City of Atlanta, if the annual percentage rate of the loan equals or exceeds by at least three percentage points but less than four percentage points the weekly average yield on United States Treasury securities with a comparable duration to the term of the loan, as of the week immediately preceding the week in which the interest rate for the loan is established, subject to the following conditions:

(a) If the terms of the loan offers any initial or introductory period, and the annual percentage rate is less than that which will apply after the end of such initial or introductory period, then the annual percentage rate that shall be taken into account for purposes of this paragraph shall be the rate which applies after the initial or introductory period; and

(b) In the case of an annual percentage rate which varies in accordance with an index, the rate shall be the maximum rate permitted at any time by the loan documents.

However, a "threshold loan " shall not include a loan that is made primarily for a business purpose unrelated to the residential real property securing the loan or a loan which exceeds $100, 000.

Section 58-103. Predatory Lending Practices Prohibited.

(1) It shall be unlawful to engage in predatory lending practices, as set forth below:

(a) Issuing Predatory Loans

No person shall make, issue, or arrange a predatory loan, or assist others in doing so. A person who, when acting in good faith, fails to comply with this subsection will not be deemed to have violated this subsection if the person establishes that either:

(i) Within 30 days of the loan closing and prior to the institution of any action under this Article, the borrower is notified of the compliance failure, appropriate restitution is made, and whatever adjustments are necessary are made to the loan to either, at the choice of the borrower, (A) make the predatory loan satisfy the requirements of this Article or (B) change the terms of the loan in a manner beneficial to the borrower so that the loan will no longer be considered a predatory loan subject to the provisions of this Chapter; or

(ii) The compliance failure was not intentional and resulted from a bona fide error notwithstanding the maintenance of procedures reasonably adapted to avoid such errors, and within 60 days after the discovery of the compliance failure and prior to the institution of any action under this Chapter or the receipt of written notice of compliance failure, the borrower is notified of the compliance failure, appropriate restitution is made, and whatever adjustments are necessary are made to the loan to either, at the choice of the borrower, (A) make the predatory loan satisfy the requirements of this Chapter, or (B) change the terms of the loan in a manner beneficial to the borrower so that the loan will no longer be considered a predatory loan subject to the provisions of this Chapter/Division. Examples of a bona fide error include clerical, calculation, computer malfunction and programming, and printing errors. An error of legal judgment with respect to a person's obligations under this Chapter is not a bona fide error.

(b) Lending Without Home Loan Counseling.

No person shall make, issue or arrange any threshold or high cost loan, or assist others in doing so, without first receiving notice from a counselor employed by a housing counseling agency approved by the Department of Planning, Development and Neighborhood Conservation, or any department so designated by the City, that the borrower has received counseling on the advisability of the loan transaction and the appropriateness of the loan for the borrower based upon the information provided by borrower and lender to the counselor at the time counseling is provided to the borrower.

(c) Lending Without Due Regard to Repayment.

No lender shall make, issue or originate any threshold or high cost loan if the lender does not reasonably believe at the time the loan is consummated that the borrower or borrowers who reside in the home (when considered individually or collectively) will be able to make the scheduled payments to repay the obligation based upon consideration of their current and expected income, current obligations, employment status, and other financial resources (other than the borrower's equity in the dwelling which secures repayment of the loan). A lender who follows the debt-to-income ratio listed in 38 C.F.R. Section 36.4337(c)(1) and as defined in C.F.R. Section 36.4337(d), and follows the residual income guidelines established in 38 C.F.R. 36.4337(e) and VA-Form 26-6393 shall benefit from a rebuttable presumption that the lender made the loan with due regard to repayment ability.

(d) Payments to Home Improvement Contractors.

A lender shall not pay proceeds of a threshold or high cost loan to any "home improvement contractor ", as that term is defined in the Home Improvement Finance Act, 73 P.S. §500-102(9), and a home improvement contractor may not receive the proceeds of a threshold or high cost loan, other than:

- (i) by an instrument payable solely to the borrower(s); or
- (ii) at the election of the borrower, through a third party escrow agent in accordance with terms established in a written agreement signed by the borrower and the home improvement contractor prior to the disbursement; provided however that in no instance shall more than 25% of the total proceeds of the threshold or high cost loan be disbursed at the time of closing.

(e) Incorporating Governmental Financial Assistance Funds.

- (i) It shall be unlawful to promote, employ, package, promote, use, or in any other way incorporating funds from any of the programs administered by the City or a City Agency which are subject to regulation under this Article in combination with any high cost or predatory loan.
- (ii) Any contract, lease, grant condition or other agreement entered into by the City with any City-related Agency shall contain a provision requiring that the City-related Agency, in the administration of governmental housing assistance funds abide by the provisions of this subsection as though its administration of such funds was directly subject to the provisions of this subsection.

(f) Provisions Not Applicable to Activities of Certain Financial Institutions.

- (i) The prohibition against predatory lending practices made unlawful by sub-section (a) above shall not be applicable in the following circumstances:
 - (A) to a lender licensed under state or federal law, provided that such loan provisions are made in conformity with the requirements of federal law pursuant to the Alternative Mortgage Transaction Parity Act, 12 U. S. C. §3803, and provided that any such loan is not otherwise predatory as defined in this Article; or
 - (B) to a loan made in conformity with the laws of the State of Georgia solely because the loan contains any provision authorized by such act, provided that any such loan is not otherwise predatory as defined in this Article.

(ii) The prohibitions set forth in subsections (a) Issuing Predatory Loans; (b) Lending Without Home Loan Counseling; (c) Lending Without Due Regard to Repayment; and (d) Payments to Home Improvement Contractors are shall not be applicable to a State chartered bank, a bank and trust company, a savings bank, a private bank or a national bank, a State or federally chartered savings and loan association, a federally chartered savings bank or a State or federally chartered credit union. (b) Certification of Compliance to be recorded. At the time of recording a mortgage, the lender and if applicable the mortgage broker, must file a certification of compliance in the Superior Court of Fulton or DeKalb County, as applicable, for recording along with the mortgage instrument and deed. The Clerk of the Superior Court shall make the information contained in such certifications available to the public in the most usable form the Court practicably can provide. The certification of compliance shall be substantially in the following form and shall comply with any formatting requirements promulgated from time to time by the Department of Planning and Neighborhood Conservation or any department so designated by the Mayor.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO CUSTOMERS OF HOME IMPROVEMENT CONTRACTORS

If you need a loan to pay for home improvements:

BE CAREFUL. A lender will probably want to take a mortgage on your house. You should not borrow more than you can afford or more than you need. The loan you are being offered may be a threshold or high cost loan. You may be eligible for a different loan that charges significantly lower interest or fees. Be very cautious about consolidating your debts with a home mortgage. Beware that if you default on this loan you could lose your house!

It is now the law in the City of Atlanta that before you sign any threshold or high cost home loan you must receive housing counseling assistance.

For the name, address and phone number of a housing counseling or legal services agency in your neighborhood turn this notice over to see the list of agencies printed on the reverse side.
